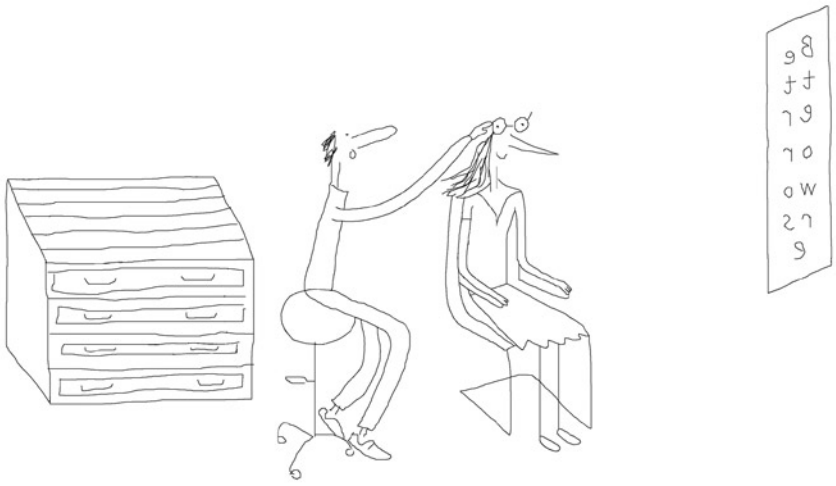
www.tbohm.info > Book, textbook and document design



Offers a graphic communication design (book design, corporate communications, document design, graphic design, information design, instruction manual design, textbook design, typesetting, typography, website design) and illustration (freehand, technical) service across print, web and interactive medias. Also offers a large, giant and clear print transcription and design service for people with visual impairments.

Mainly designs and illustrates educational, medical, scientific, teenage, general trade and large print books.

To find out more and to request a portfolio, contact me through www.tbohm.info.